

LexisNexis and Radiant Law to collaborate on legal technology solutions

LONDON, 23 February 2017 – LexisNexis UK (www.lexisnexis.co.uk), a leading provider of content and technology solutions, today announced that Radiant Law and LexisNexis will collaborate on the exploration and development of new technology solutions.

The collaboration will look at new ways of applying technology to give greater insight and speed up the contracting process in order to minimise risk, reduce cycle times and boost revenue for clients.

“LexisNexis is a digital pioneer, leading the way in the provision of content and technology solutions for the legal profession,” commented Alex Hamilton, CEO of Radiant Law. “We have long believed that technology is critical to delivering value to Radiant Law’s clients. Having the opportunity to team up with LexisNexis and support the development of products that will drive efficiencies in the commercial contracting process is a really exciting next step for us.”

“Customer-driven innovation is at the heart of how we develop new products and solutions for our customers,” said Ridhima Raina, Director of Strategy & Business Development at LexisNexis UK. “We look forward to collaborating with innovators such as Radiant Law in developing new solutions that add significant value to lawyers in private practice and corporates.”
